

Contact:
Mary-Lou French
Manager, Awards and Subscriptions
PRNEWS

PRNEWS Announces 2024 Winners of Famed Nonprofit Awards

New York, NY (June 10, 2024)—PRNEWS, the communication industry’s go-to source for education, inspiration and recognition, is pleased to announce the winners of the 2024 Nonprofit Awards. Each year, the coveted awards program recognizes the communicators that work hard to make the world a better place via nonprofit initiatives.

View the full list of winners and honorable mentions.

2024 Winners Include:

- Aker Ink
- American Medical Association
- ARCOR Foundation
- Baker Public Relations
- Benitez Strategies
- Berman and Company
- Better Together
- Bospar
- BRG Communications
- Brown Miller Communications
- CDC Foundation
- Citizens Commission on Human Rights of Florida
- Dallas Symphony Orchestra
- DSC Communications
- Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation
- Farmer's Footprint
- Gregory FCA
- Güd Marketing
- Hawthorne Strategy Group
- Impact Public Affairs
- JConnelly
- Kenneth Rainin Foundation
- King Media
- Lucky Break PR
- MKC Strategies
- Moore
- National Parks Conservation Association
- Pac/West Strategies
- Poston Communications
- PriceWeber
- U.S. Small Business Administration
- University of San Diego
- Vanguard Communications
- Wellspring Communications
- And more!

“This year’s Nonprofit Award winners show the critical impact that communications has on so many important issues facing the world today,” says Kaylee Hultgren, Content Director at PRNEWS. “This year’s winners include successful advocacy and fundraising campaigns, and work that creates more inclusive opportunities for underrepresented groups—often accomplished with limited budgets and resources.”

View the full list of winners and honorable mentions.

For more information, visit www.prnewsonline.com.

About PRNEWS

PRNEWS is the largest event and digital media brand providing business intelligence and face-to-face experiences to the PR and Communications industry. For more information, visit www.prnewsonline.com.